Wild Indigo Herb Fest

May 28th 2027 – May 30th 2027

Bellwether Farm, 4655 State Route 60, Wakeman, OH 44889

Be a Vendor at the Wild Indigo Market!

One of the joys of herb gatherings is the opportunity to mix and mingle and see what kinds of things people are making and selling in the herbal and healing market.

We are looking for vendors who specialize in making high quality, handmade herbal products, grow plants, make tea cups and pots, and other things that relate to healing rooted in nature. Pollinator friends, wild food enthusiasts, and community members that offer education and community-based events are also welcome to apply.

Most importantly we are looking for vendors who want to attend the workshops and walks offered, people who want to be part of the event, not just setting up at another venue. The Wild Indigo Market will be open to participants during meal breaks and between classes and activities, so that vendors have an opportunity to participate in the conference. We expect 160 participants for our first year at Wild Indigo Herb Fest.

The Wild Indigo Market will have vendor opportunities available in two spaces; inside Bellwether's beautiful historic barn and a few outdoor spots in front of the barn. The fee for one 10 x10 vendor space (for the weekend) is $100.00. All applicants will be equally considered for the marketplace at the Wild Indigo Herb Fest.

Indoor vendors are responsible for bringing all materials that may be needed to vend, including tables and chairs and supplies. Electricity for indoor vending spaces is limited.

If an outdoor vending space is of preference, vendors are responsible for providing everything needed to run an outdoor space such as a tent, sides/tarps, and weights for the tent, tables, chairs and any other supplies. Electricity is not available to outdoor vendors. Please keep in mind that the weather can be unpredictable in May in Ohio. We hope for warm beautiful weather, but we ask that you come prepared for wind, rain, sun and temperature fluctuations.

We kindly ask that you include photos of previous booth set ups, product photos and business logos with the application that would be approved for sharing on our Social Media Channels, Website and Vendor Page. General liability insurance information or assigned hold harmless agreement form is required to complete the vendor application.

Please reach out to me via email at sageandspicewb@gmail.com if you have any questions about vendor information or the Wild Indigo Market.
